Risk related to Market Linked Debentures

a. The securities are created based on complex mathematical models and may involve multiple derivative exposures which may or may not be hedged and the actual behavior of the securities selected for hedging may significantly differ from the returns predicted by the mathematical models.

b. The principal amount is subject to credit risk of the issuer whereby the investor may or may not recover all or part of the funds in case of default by the issuer.

c. The valuation as may be provided by the valuation Agency, on the website of the Issuer and the valuation agency or otherwise, do not represent the actual price of the Debenture that may be received upon sale of redemption of debentures. They merely represent the valuation agency's computation of the valuation which may in turn be based on several assumptions. A debenture holder understands and is aware that the valuation is not in any manner reflective of the actual returns that can be obtained by such Investor on debenture.

d. The return on an investment in the debentures (which are linked to securities) may differ from the return an investor might earn on a direct investment in the securities over a similar period.

e. The terms of instrument specify that the payments to investors will not be fixed, and will be linked to an external variable e.g government security price. This could result in variability in payments, because of adverse movement in value of the external variable. The risk of such adverse movement in price/value is not addressed by any rating.

B. Date of incorporation of the Issuer

Issuer was incorporated on May 28, 1999.

C. Business carried on by the Issuer and its subsidiaries and details of branches or units, if any

i. Brief History

Issuer is a deposit taking housing finance company registered with National Housing Bank (NHB). The Issuer is a wholly owned subsidiary of ICICI Bank Ltd.

Issuer was incorporated on May 28, 1999, as a wholly owned subsidiary of erstwhile ICICI Personal Financial Services Limited. Issuer obtained its certificate of commencement of business on July 9, 1999. Subsequently, it became a wholly owned subsidiary of the erstwhile ICICI Ltd. with effect from November 22, 1999. Following the merger of erstwhile ICICI Ltd. with ICICI Bank Ltd., Issuer became a wholly owned subsidiary of ICICI Bank Ltd.

ii. Overview

The Issuer's business activities consist of primarily housing finance including other retail loans and mortgage loans to customers, corporate loans to real estate developers and other lending businesses, distribution of third party products and fee-based products and services.

Long-term mortgage loans to individuals and corporations and construction finance to builders are secured by a mortgage of the property. Housing loans are extended for maturities generally ranging from five to twenty years and a large proportion of these loans are at floating rates of interest. This reduces the interest rate risk of the issuer. Any change in the benchmark rate to which the rate of interest on the home loan is referenced is effected on to the borrower on the first day of the succeeding quarter or the succeeding month, as applicable. Any decrease in the rate of interest payable on floating rate home loans is generally effected by an acceleration of the repayment schedule, keeping the monthly installment amount unchanged. Any increase in the rate of interest payable on floating rate home loans is effected by either a prolongation of the repayment schedule, keeping the monthly installment amount unchanged or by changing the monthly installment amount based on certain approved criteria.

Issuer provides finance for purchase of homes and consultancy services for real estate businesses. It acts as a facilitator for retail customers, both prospective buyers and sellers. As part of the corporate property services, Issuer acts as a real estate consultant to developers and corporate clients providing customized real estate solutions to meet specific client requirements, for example, rent securitisation, joint venture structuring, sale and lease back transactions and investments and research.

The Issuer also offers specialized service of real estate valuation. The team comprises of civil engineers, graduates / post graduates with in-depth knowledge & experience in construction and valuation industry.

i. External factors

A prolonged slowdown in economic growth or elevated level of interest rates may impact our business

Economic growth in India is influenced by several factors, including inflation, interest rates, government policies, and external trade and capital flows. A prolonged slowdown in the Indian economy could adversely affect our business and borrowers. The scenario may lead to a situation of defaults and put pressure on asset quality. In such situation, the prolonged elevated level of interest rates coupled with increasing non-performing assets may impact the Issuer's cost of funds and in turn the net interest margin.

Our business is very competitive and our strategy depends on our ability to respond to regulatory changes across financial sector and compete effectively.

Within the mortgage finance market, we face intense competition from commercial banks, mortgage finance companies and other non-banking finance companies including new entrants.

Any volatility in housing or real estate prices may have an adverse impact on our business and our growth strategy.

We are primarily engaged in the business of housing finance, and as such are exposed to the effects of volatility in housing and real estate prices. Any sudden or sharp movement in housing prices may adversely affect the demand for housing and housing finance and the quality of our portfolio which may have an adverse impact on our business and growth strategy.

The enhanced supervisory and compliance environment in the financial sector increases the risk of regulatory action.

The laws and regulations or the regulatory or enforcement environment in India may change at any time and may have an adverse effect on the products or services we offer, the value of our assets or of the collateral available for our loans or our business in general.

National Housing Bank (NHB) and other regulatory authorities from time to time have instituted several changes in regulations applicable to housing finance companies, including changes in risk-weights on certain categories of loans for computation of capital adequacy, changes in general provisioning requirements for various categories of assets and change in capital requirements. Similar changes in future could have an adverse impact on our growth, capital adequacy and profitability.

In addition to be regulated as a housing finance company, being a wholly owned subsidiary of a banking entity we are subject to a variety of banking, and financial services laws, regulations and regulatory policies and a large number of regulatory and enforcement authorities. Since the global financial crisis, regulators in India have intensified their review, supervision and scrutiny of many financial institutions viewing them as presenting a higher risk profile than in the past, in a range of areas. This increased review and scrutiny or any changes in the existing regulatory supervision framework, increases the possibility that we will face adverse legal or regulatory impact. Regulators may have qualifications/ reservations on compliance status of company with applicable laws, regulations, accounting norms or regulatory policies, or with their interpretations of such laws, regulations or regulatory policies, and may take formal or informal actions against us. Despite our best efforts to comply with all applicable regulations, there are a number of risks that cannot be completely controlled.

We cannot predict the timing or form of any current or future regulatory or law enforcement initiatives, which are increasingly common for international banks and financial institutions, but we would expect to cooperate with any such regulatory investigation or proceeding.

Natural calamities and climate change could adversely affect the Indian economy and our business.

India has experienced natural calamities like earthquakes, floods and drought in the past. The extent and severity of these natural disasters determine their impact on the Indian economy, and our operations.

ii. Internal Factors:

We are subject to credit, market and liquidity risk which may have an adverse effect on our credit ratings and our cost of funds.

To the extent any of the instruments and strategies we use to hedge or otherwise manage our exposure to market or credit risk are not effective, we may not be able to effectively mitigate our risk exposures in particular market environments or against particular types of risk. Our balance sheet growth will be dependent upon economic conditions, as well as upon our determination to securitize, sell, purchase or syndicate particular loans or loan portfolios.

Our earnings are dependent upon the effectiveness of our management of migrations in credit quality and risk concentrations, the accuracy of our valuation models and our critical accounting estimates and the adequacy of our allowances for loan losses. To the extent our assessments, assumptions or estimates prove inaccurate or not predictive of actual results, we could suffer higher than anticipated losses. The successful management of credit, market and operational risk is an important consideration in managing our liquidity risk because it affects the evaluation of our credit ratings by rating agencies. Rating agencies may reduce or indicate their intention to reduce the ratings at any time. The rating agencies can also decide to withdraw their ratings altogether, which may have the same effect as a reduction in our ratings. Any reduction in our ratings (or withdrawal of ratings) may increase our borrowing costs, limit our access to capital markets and adversely affect our ability to sell or market our products, engage in business transactions, particularly longer-term or retain our customers. This, in turn, could reduce our liquidity and negatively impact our operating results and financial condition.

The value of our collateral may decrease or we may experience delays in enforcing our collateral when borrowers default on their obligations to us, which may result in failure to recover the expected value of collateral security exposing us to a potential loss.

All our loans to retail customers and corporates are secured primarily by real estate assets. Changes in real estate prices may cause the value of the security provided to us to decline and we may not be able to realize the full value of the security as a result of delays in foreclosure proceedings and bankruptcy, defects or deficiencies in the perfection of the security (including due to inability to obtain approvals that may be required from various persons, agencies or authorities), fraudulent transfers by borrowers and other factors, including current legislative provisions or changes thereto and past or future judicial pronouncements. Failure to recover the expected value of the security could expose us to potential losses, which could adversely affect our business.

Further deterioration of our non-performing asset portfolio and an inability to improve our provisioning coverage as a percentage of gross non-performing assets could adversely affect our business.

Although we believe that our total provisions will be adequate to cover all known losses in our asset portfolio, there can be no assurance that there will be no deterioration in the provisioning coverage as a percentage of gross non-performing assets or otherwise or that the percentage of non-performing assets that we will be able to recover will be similar to our past experience of recoveries of non-performing assets. In the event of any further deterioration in our non-performing asset portfolio, there could be an adverse impact on our business and our future financial performance.

Fraud and significant security breaches in our computer system and network infrastructure could adversely impact our business.

Our business operations are based on a high volume of transactions. Although we take adequate measures to safeguard against system-related and other fraud, there can be no assurance that we would be able to prevent fraud. Our reputation could be adversely affected by fraud committed by employees, customers or outsiders. Physical or electronic break-ins, security breaches, other disruptive problems caused by our increased use of the Internet or power disruptions could also affect the security of information stored in and transmitted through our computer systems and network infrastructure. Although we have implemented security technology and operational procedures to prevent such occurrences, there can be no assurance that these security measures will be successful. A significant failure in security measures could have a material adverse effect on our business.

System failures could adversely impact our business.

Given the nature of business, retail products and services, the importance of systems technology to our business is very significant. Any failure in our systems could significantly affect our operations and the quality of our customer service and could result in business and financial losses. As a mitigation tool we have in place the Business Continuity Plan to address / minimize the impact of loss due to system failures, however minimal impact cannot be ruled out.

We depend on the accuracy and completeness of information about customers and counterparties.

In deciding whether to extend credit or enter into other transactions with customers and counterparties, we may rely on information furnished to us by or on behalf of customers and counterparties, including financial statements and other financial information. Unlike several developed economies, a nationwide credit bureau has become operational in India only recently. This may affect the quality of information available to us about the credit history of our borrowers, especially individual borrowers, which is a major part of our lending. We may also rely on certain representations as to the accuracy and completeness of that information and, with respect to financial statements, on reports of independent auditors. For example, in deciding whether to extend credit, we may assume that a customer's audited financial statements conform with generally accepted accounting principles and present fairly, in all material respects, the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the customer. Our financial condition and results of operations could be negatively affected by relying on financial statements that do not comply with generally accepted accounting principles or other information that is materially misleading.

Any inability to attract and retain talented professionals may adversely impact our business.

Our business is growing with both product line expansion and geographic expansion. This is happening at the same time as a developing shortage of skilled management talent both at the highest levels and among middle management and young professionals in India due to the rapid growth and globalization of the Indian economy. Our continued success depends in part on the continued service of key members of our management team and our ability to continue to attract, train, motivate and retain highly qualified professionals is a key element of our strategy and we believe it to be a significant source of competitive advantage. The successful implementation of our growth strategy depends on the availability of skilled management. If we fail to staff our operations appropriately, or lose one or more of our key senior executives or qualified young professionals and fail to replace them in a satisfactory and timely manner, our business, financial condition and results of operations, including our control and operational risks, may be adversely affected. Likewise, if we fail to attract and appropriately train, motivate and retain young professionals or other talent, our business may likewise be affected. Our inability to attract and retain talented professionals or the loss of key management personnel could have an adverse impact on our business.

Negative publicity could damage our reputation and adversely impact our business and financial results.

Reputation risk, or the risk to our business, earnings and capital from negative publicity, is inherent in our business. The reputation of the financial services industry in general has been closely monitored as a result of the financial crisis and other matters affecting the financial services industry. Negative public opinion about the financial services industry generally or us specifically or our parent company could adversely affect our ability to keep and attract customers, and expose us to litigation and regulatory action. Negative publicity can result from our actual or alleged conduct in any number of activities, including lending practices and specific credit exposures, corporate governance, regulatory compliance, mergers and acquisitions, and related disclosure, sharing or inadequate protection of customer information, and actions taken by government, regulators and community organizations in response to that conduct. We are also exposed to the risk of litigation by customers across our businesses.

The Companies Act, 2013 has effected significant changes to the existing Indian company law framework, which may subject us to higher compliance requirements and increase our compliance costs.

The Companies Act, 2013 has brought into effect significant changes to the Indian company law framework, such as in the provisions related to issue of capital, disclosures, corporate governance norms, audit matters, and related party transactions. Further, the Companies Act, 2013 has also introduced additional requirements which do not have corresponding equivalents under the Companies Act, 1956, including the introduction of a provision allowing the initiation of class action suits in India against companies by shareholders or depositors, a restriction on investment by an Indian company through more than two layers of subsidiary investment companies (subject to certain permitted exceptions), and prohibitions on advances to directors. Further, the Companies Act, 2013 imposes greater monetary and other liability on our company, our directors and officers in default, for any non-compliance. To ensure compliance with the requirements of the Companies Act, 2013, we may need to allocate additional resources, which may increase our regulatory compliance costs and divert management attention.

We may face challenges in anticipating the changes required by, interpreting and complying with such provisions due to limited jurisprudence on them. In the event, our interpretation of such provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 differs from, or contradicts with, any judicial pronouncements or clarifications issued by the Government in the future, we may face regulatory actions or we may be required to undertake remedial steps. Additionally, some of the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 overlap with other existing laws and regulations, (such as the corporate governance norms and insider trading regulations). We may face difficulties in complying with any such overlapping requirements. Any increase in our compliance requirements or in our compliance costs may have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

NCDs are subject to taxation requirements

Potential purchasers and sellers of the NCDs should be aware that they may be required to pay taxes in accordance with the laws and practices of India. Further, in certain cases, Issuer may be required to make tax deductions in respect of any payments.

It is not possible to predict the precise tax treatment which will apply at any given time and independent tax advisers should be consulted for tax incidence.

Thereafter, personal hearing was held at SEBI on the said notice on October 16, 2018 and supplements to the earlier notice was submitted on October 31, 2018 & January 10, 2019.
- 6) ICICI Bank Limited & ex-Compliance Officer had received a Notice from SEBI on July 31, 2018 under Rule 4(1) of SCR (Procedure for Holding Inquiry and imposing penalties by Adjudicating Officer) Rules 2005 requiring responses on matters relating to alleged non-compliance with certain provisions of the erstwhile Listing Agreement with respect to delayed disclosure of an agreement relating to merger of the erstwhile Bank of Rajasthan with the Bank. The Bank has sought inspection of documents from SEBI.

- 7) Erstwhile Bank of Madura had granted lease finance to M/s. ORJ Electronic Oxides Ltd (the "Borrower") for import of capital goods from USA. Upon investigations by the Customs department, it was detected that machinery manufactured in India were exported and then re-imported in same container with higher value. As ICICI Bank under the aforesaid lease finance was the importer, a customs duty and penalty was imposed under the Customs Act, 1962 on ICICI Bank and the Borrower. Issues of mis-declaration of value and violation of the Customs Act, 1962 resulted in a demand of ₹ 128.6 million and penalty of ₹ 50.0 million. On appeal the penalty was reduced to ₹ 1.0 million. The matter was re-adjudicated and duty was re-worked to ₹ 3.1 million. ICICI Bank filed an appeal before the Madras High Court on the aforesaid duty and penalty imposed and conditional stay was allowed subject to deposit of Rs.1.5 million being placed by ICICI Bank, which was duly complied with. The matter is currently pending.
- 8) Excise Duty Proceedings: Borrowers like Bannari Amman Sugars Ltd., Triveni Engineering Co. Ltd. and Balarampur Chini Mills Ltd., have been alleged to have evaded excise duty in respect of equipment purchased under an ADB /World Bank Scheme funded by the Bank. Penalty was imposed on the Bank in respect of these machinery purchased.. Presently stay has been obtained on the penalty imposed and the appeals are pending before CESTAT New Delhi.
- 9) Customs Duty Proceedings: Penalties were imposed on ICICI Bank for alleged customs duty evasion by its borrowers Jaypee Cement Ltd., Rashtriya Chemicals & Fertilizers Ltd., Madras Aluminium Co. Ltd., Jindal Steel & Power Ltd. and Triveni Engineering Co. Ltd., in respect of equipment imported under ADB line of credit and funded by the Bank.. All matters are presently under appeal before various forum.
- 10) Customs Duty on Gold Coins: In 2008, ICICI Bank was alleged to have imported gold coins for a Borrower M/s. Gold Quest International Private Ltd., under a wrong classification and hence differential customs duty of ₹ 252.8 million and penalty of ₹ 25.0 million has been imposed. An appeal had been preferred before the CESTAT, Chennai and a stay order has been passed on the aforesaid demand. The appeal was allowed. No proceedings are pending presently. Gold Quest is in the process of obtaining refund of the differential customs duty paid under protest.

Dear Mr. Vikrant Gandhi,

Re: CRISIL Rating for the Rs.300 Crore Long-Term Principal Protected Market Linked Debentures of ICICI Home Finance Company Ltd

All ratings assigned by CRISIL are kept under continuous surveillance and review.

Please find in the table below the rating outstanding for your company.

S.No.	Instrument	Rated Amount (Rs. in Crore)	Rating Outstanding
1	Long-Term Principal-Protected Commodity-Linked Debentures	300	CRISIL PP-MLD AAAr/Stable

A prefix of 'PP-MLD' indicates that the instrument is a principal-protected market-linked debenture. The terms of such instruments indicate that while the issuer promises to pay back the face value/principal of the instrument, the coupon rates of these instruments will not be fixed, and could be linked to one or more external variables such as commodity prices, equity share prices, indices, or foreign exchange rates. The 'r' suffix indicates that payments on the rated instrument have significant risks other than credit risk. The terms of the instrument specify that the payments to investors will not be fixed, and could be linked to one or more external variables such as commodity prices, equity indices, or foreign exchange rates. This could result in variability in returns because of adverse movement in value of the external variables, and/or possible material loss of principal on early redemption of the instrument. The risk of such adverse movement in price / value is not addressed by the rating.

For the purpose of issuance of the captioned debt instrument, this letter is valid for 180 calendar days from the date of the letter. In the event of your company not placing the above instrument within this period, or in the event of any change in the size/structure of your proposed issue, the rating shall have to be reviewed and a letter of revalidation shall have to be issued to you. Once the instrument is issued, the above rating is valid throughout the life of the captioned debt instrument.

As per our Rating Agreement, CRISIL would disseminate the rating along with outlook through its publications and other media, and keep the rating along with outlook under surveillance for the life of the instrument. CRISIL reserves the right to withdraw, or revise the rating / outlook assigned to the captioned programme at any time, on the basis of new information, or unavailability of information, or other circumstances which CRISIL believes may have an impact on the rating.

As per the latest SEBI circular (reference number: CIR/IMD/DF/17/2013; dated October 22, 2013) on centralized database for corporate bonds/debentures, you are required to provide international securities identification number (ISIN; along with the reference number and the date of the rating letter) of all bond/debenture issuances made against this rating letter to us. The circular also requires you to share this information with us within 2 days after the allotment of the ISIN. We request you to mail us all the necessary and relevant information at debtissue@crisil.com. This will enable CRISIL to verify and confirm to the depositories, including NSDL and CDSL, the ISIN details of debt rated by us, as required by SEBI. Feel free to contact us for any clarifications you may have at debtissue@crisil.com

Should you require any clarifications, please feel free to contact us.

With warm regards,

Yours sincerely,
