2. MANAGEMENT'S PERCEPTION OF RISK FACTORS

a. Risks in relation to Debentures

(i) The Debentures may not be a suitable investment for all investors

Potential investors should ensure that they understand the nature of the Debentures (as defined subsequently) and the extent of their exposure to risk, that they have sufficient knowledge, experience and access to professional advisers to make their own legal, tax, accounting and financial evaluation of the merits and risks of investment in the Debentures and that they consider the suitability of the Debentures as an investment in the light of their own circumstances and financial condition. An investment in the Debentures involves risks. These risks may include, among others, equity market risks, bond market risks, interest rate risks, market volatility and economic, political and regulatory risks and any combination of these and other risks. The Debentures may decline in value and the investors should note that, whatever be their investment in the Debentures, the cash amount due at maturity will be an amount such as to provide the yield to maturity of the Debentures to the investors in accordance with the terms of the Issue.

(ii) Debenture Holders may be subject to taxation related risks

- A. Potential purchasers and sellers of the Debentures should be aware that they may be required to pay stamp duties or other documentary charges and taxes in accordance with the laws and practices of India. Payment and / or delivery of any amount due in respect of the Debentures will be conditional upon the payment of all applicable taxes, duties and / or expenses.
- B. Potential investors who are in any doubt as to their tax position should consult their own independent tax advisers. In addition, potential investors should be aware that tax regulations and their application by the relevant taxation authorities change from time to time. Accordingly, it is not possible to predict the precise tax treatment which will apply at any given time.

b. Risks in relation to the Company

- (i) The Company is subject to risks relating to the economic, political, legal or social environments of the locations in which we operate.
- (ii) Difficult conditions in the global financial markets and the economy generally have affected and may continue to materially and adversely affect the business and results of operations of the Company.
- (iii) The development of the business and operations of the Company is subject to risks associated with the engagement of third party contractors/sub-contractors.
- (iv) Availability and cost of quality raw material may affect the results of operations of the Company.

c. Risks in relation to Enforcement

(i) Significant delays may be faced in court proceedings in India

The Debenture Trustee may need to seek recourse to Indian courts to enforce its rights in respect of the Debentures. It is not unusual for court proceedings in India to continue for extended periods. Disposition of cases may be further subject to various delays including multiple levels of appellate adjudication.

(ii) Exercise of powers by the Debenture Trustee is subject to equitable principles and supervisory powers of courts

The exercise by the Debenture Trustee of the powers and remedies conferred on it under the Debentures, or otherwise vested in it by law, will be subject to general equitable principles regarding the enforcement of security, the general supervisory powers and discretion of the Indian courts in the context thereof and the obtaining of any necessary governmental or regulatory consents, approvals, authorisations or orders.

(iii) The right of the Debenture Holders to receive payments under the Debentures will be junior to certain tax and other liabilities preferred by law on winding up or insolvency of the Company

The Debentures will be subordinated to certain liabilities preferred by Law such as claims of the Central and State Government on account of taxes and certain liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of the Company's business (including workmen's dues). Upon an order for winding-up in India, the assets of a company are vested in a liquidator who has wide powers to liquidate such company to pay its debt and administrative expenses.
