Till such time, the redemption proceeds will be kept in abeyance.

Effect of holidays on payments

If the date of payment of interest or redemption or any date specified does not fall on a Working Day, the succeeding Working Day shall be considered as the effective date. Interest and principal or other amounts, if any, shall be paid on the succeeding Working Day, without any interest for the period overdue.

The Bonds would stand extinguished from the redemption date. No interest will be paid for further period.

The payment will be made in the name of Bondholder registered as Bondholders as on the record date fixed by the Authority for this purpose i.e. 15 days prior to the respective redemption date ("Record Date"). (The payment of redemption proceeds shall be made in the name of First Applicant (in case of Joint Application)/Sole Applicant and as per Bank account particulars provided in the Application).

For Bond(s) held in Demat Form: On the redemption date, redemption proceeds would be paid by Cheque(s)/ Redemption Warrant(s) etc., to those Bondholders whose names appear on the list of beneficial owners given by the Depository to the Authority. These names would be as per the depository's record on the record Date / book closure date fixed for the purpose of redemption. These Bonds will be simultaneously extinguished. It may be noted that in the entire process mentioned above, no action is required on the part of the Bondholders.

TAXATION

TAX DEDUCTION AT SOURCE

The Ministry of Finance, Department of Revenue, Government of India, has, by notification in the official Gazette on 5th March, 2004 (notification No. 67/2004/F.No.275/5/2004-IT (B) announced exemption from TDS provisions as follows.

"In exercise of the power conferred by clause (ii) (b) of the proviso to Section 193 of the Income Tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961), the Central Government hereby specifies the "NHAI Non-convertible Redeemable Bonds with benefits under Section 54 EC of the Income Tax Act, 1961" issued by National Highways Authority of India, New Delhi for the purpose of the said clause.

The Bonds are for tenure of 3 years and are NON MARKETABLE, NON TRANSFERABLE NON AND NEGOTIBLE and cannot be offered as a security for any loan or advance. However, transmission of the Bonds to the legal heirs in case of death of the Bondholder/Beneficiary to the Bonds is allowed.

Section 54 EC relating to exemption on long term capital gains if invested in Bonds was inserted by the Finance Act 2000. Presently Section 54 EC provide as follows:

SECTION 54 EC: CAPITAL GAIN NOT TO BE CHARGED ON INVESTMENT IN CERTAIN BONDS*Capital gain not to be charged on investment in certain bonds.

54EC. (1) Where the capital gain arises from the transfer of a long-term capital asset (the capital asset so transferred being hereafter in this section referred to as the original asset) and the assessee has, at any time within a period of six months after the date of such transfer, invested the whole or any part of capital gains in the long-term specified asset, the capital gain shall be dealt with in accordance with the following provisions of this section, that is to say,

- (a) if the cost of the long-term specified asset is not less than the capital gain arising from the transfer of the original asset, the whole of such capital gain shall not be charged under section 45;
- (b) if the cost of the long-term specified asset is less than the capital gain arising from the transfer of the original asset, so much of the capital gain as bears to the whole of the capital gain the same proportion as the cost of acquisition of the long-term specified asset bears to the whole of the capital gain, shall not be charged under section 45 :

Provided that the investment made on or after the 1st day of April, 2007 in the long-term specified asset by an assessee during any financial year does not exceed fifty lakh rupees :

Provided further that the investment made by an assessee in the long-term specified asset, from capital gains arising from transfer of one or more original assets, during the financial year in which the original asset or assets are transferred and in the subsequent financial year does not exceed fifty lakh rupees.

- (2) Where the long-term specified asset is transferred or converted (otherwise than by transfer) into money at any time within a period of three years from the date of its acquisition, the amount of capital gains arising from the transfer of the original asset not charged under section 45 on the basis of the cost of such long-term specified asset as provided in clause (a) or, as the case may be, clause (b) of sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be the income chargeable under the head "Capital gains" relating to long-term capital asset of the previous year in which the long-term specified asset is transferred or converted (otherwise than by transfer) into money.

Explanation. In a case where the original asset is transferred and the assessee invests the whole or any part of the capital gain received or accrued as a result of transfer of the original asset in any long-term specified asset and such assessee takes any loan or advance on the security of such specified asset, he shall be deemed to have converted (otherwise than by transfer) such specified asset into money on the date on which such loan or advance is taken.

- (3) Where the cost of the long-term specified asset has been taken into account for the purposes of clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1),
  - (a) a deduction from the amount of income-tax with reference to such cost shall not be allowed under section 88 for any assessment year ending before the 1st day of April, 2006;
  - (b) a deduction from the income with reference to such cost shall not be allowed under section 80C for any assessment year beginning on or after the 1st day of April, 2006.

Explanation. For the purposes of this section,

- (a) "cost", in relation to any long-term specified asset, means the amount invested in such specified asset out of capital gains received or accruing as a result of the transfer of the original asset;
- (b) "long-term specified asset" for making any investment under this section during the period commencing from the 1st day of April, 2006 and ending with the 31st day of March, 2007, means any bond, redeemable after three years and issued on or after the 1st day of April, 2006, but on or before the 31st day of March, 2007,
  - (i) by the National Highways Authority of India constituted under section 3 of the National Highways Authority of India Act, 1988 (68 of 1988); or
  - (ii) by the Rural Electrification Corporation Limited, a company formed and registered under the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), and notified by the Central Government in the Official Gazette for the purposes of this section with such conditions (including the condition for providing a limit on the amount of investment by an assessee in such bond) as it thinks fit:

Provided that where any bond has been notified before the 1st day of April, 2007, subject to the conditions specified in the notification, by the Central Government in the Official Gazette under the provisions of clause (b) as they stood immediately before their amendment by the Finance Act, 2007, such bond shall be deemed to be a bond notified under this clause;

- (ba) "long-term specified asset" for making any investment under this section on or after the 1st day of April, 2007

means any bond, redeemable after three years and issued on or after the 1st day of April, 2007 by the National Highways Authority of India constituted under section 3 of the National Highways Authority of India Act, 1988 (68 of 1988) or by the Rural Electrification Corporation Limited, a company formed and registered under the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956).

Note: Section 54 EC is also being proposed to amended by Finance Bill of 2017-18 and same shall have effect as per the said amendment, if any.

It is recommended that the Bondholders / Subscribers should also consult their own tax/legal advisors on the tax implications of the acquisition, ownership and sale of the Bonds, and income arising thereon.

Please Note:

Where the application for the Bonds is made by the subscribers in joint names, such joint holder(s) shall ensure that no separate application has been made by such joint holder as an applicant singly or jointly with some other applicants. If such separate application is made, the investments made in the 54 EC Bond Issues of NHA & REC during F/Y 2017-18 shall not in aggregate exceed Rs. 50 lakhs (Rupees Fifty lakhs).

NHA shall not be responsible for any consequences including denial of any benefit u/s 54 EC of the Income Tax Act, 1961 that may arise on account of late or multiple applications being made by the applicant either singly or along with other joint holders such that the investments in the 54 EC Bonds during the F/Y 2017-18 exceed Rs.50 lakh (Rupees Fifty lakh) including investment in NHA and Rural electrification Corporation Limited.

NHA shall also not be responsible for any consequences due to late/short credit of the application money by the collecting bank or paying Bank of the applicant (s).

Mr. Sanjeev Kumar

General Manager - Finance

National Highways Authority of India (NHAI)

G-5 & 6, Sector-10

Dwarka

New Delhi – 110075

Dear Sir,

Re: ICRA Credit Rating for National Highways Authority of India (NHAI)'s proposed Rs. 59,000 crore Long Term Borrowing Programme for 2017-18

Please refer to your Rating Agreement dated March 30, 2017 for carrying out the rating of the aforesaid Long Term Borrowing Programme. The Rating Committee of ICRA, after due consideration, has assigned a [ICRA]AAA (pronounced as ICRA triple A) rating to the captioned Long Term Borrowing Programme. The outlook on the rating is 'Stable'. Instruments with this rating are considered to have the highest degree of safety regarding timely servicing of financial obligations. Such instruments carry lowest credit risk. In any of your publicity material or other document wherever you are using our above rating, it should be stated as "[ICRA]AAA".

We would appreciate if you can sign on the duplicate copy of this letter and send it to us latest by April 14, 2017 as acceptance on the assigned rating. The rationale for assigning the above rating will be sent to you on receipt of your acceptance on rating, as above. In case you do not communicate your acceptance/non acceptance of the assigned credit rating, or do not appeal against the assigned credit rating by the aforesaid date, the credit rating will be treated by us as non accepted and shall be disclosed on ICRA's website as non accepted credit rating. This is in line with requirements as prescribed in the circular dated November 01, 2016 on 'Enhanced Standards for Credit Rating Agencies' issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India, which states the following:

" Each CRA shall disclose on its website details of all ratings assigned by them, irrespective of whether the rating is accepted by the issuer or not, even in the case of non- public issues "

Any intimation by you about the above rating to any Banker/Lending Agency/Government Authorities/Stock Exchange would constitute use of this rating by you and shall be deemed acceptance of the rating.

This rating is specific to the terms and conditions of the proposed issue as was indicated to us by you and any change in the terms or size of the issue would require the rating to be reviewed by us. If there is any change in the terms and conditions or size of the instrument rated, as above, the same must be brought to our notice before the issue of the instrument. If there is any such change after the rating is assigned by us and accepted by you, it would be subject to our review and may result in change in the rating assigned. If the instrument rated, as above, is not issued by you within a period of 3 months from the date of this letter communicating the rating, the same would stand withdrawn unless revalidated before the expiry of 3 months.
