RISK FACTORS

Every business carries inherent risks and uncertainties that can affect financial conditions, results of operations and prospects. Investors should carefully consider all the information on risks and uncertainties described below, as well as the financial statements contained in this Offer Letter, before making an investment in the Debentures. The Company believes that the following risk factors may affect its ability to fulfil its obligations under the Debentures. All of these factors are contingencies which may or may not occur and the Company is not in a position to express a view on the likelihood of any such contingency occurring.

The risks and uncertainties described in this section are not the only risks that we currently face. Additional risks and uncertainties not known to the Company or that the Company currently believes to be immaterial may also have an adverse effect on its business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition. If any of the following or any other risks actually occur, the Company's business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition could be adversely affected and the price and value of the investment in the Debentures could decline such that a subscriber may lose all or part of its investment.

Unless otherwise stated, our financial information used in this section is derived from our audited financial statements as at December 31, 2016, prepared in accordance with accounting standards generally accepted in India. Investors should also read the detailed information set out elsewhere in this offer letter and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision.

Risk Factors:

1. Debentures may not be a suitable investment for all investors

Each potential investor must determine the suitability of its investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor should: (a) have sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the Debentures, the merits and risks of investing in the Debentures and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Offer Letter; (b) have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the Debentures and the impact such investment will have on its overall investment portfolio; (c) have sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Debentures; (d) understand thoroughly the terms of the Debentures; and be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

2. The Issuer has limited sources of funds fulfil its obligations under the Debentures

If there is a shortfall in any amounts then due and payable pursuant to the terms of the Debentures, the Company may not have sufficient funds to make payments on the Debentures and the Debentureholder(s) may incur a loss on the Debenture amount and/or the coupon. The ability of the Company to meet its obligations to pay any amounts due to the Debentureholder(s) under the Debentures is dependent on the revenue generated from the Project in terms of the PPA and is therefore generally exposed to the credit risk of the relevant counterparties in respect of such payments.

3. Decisions may be made on behalf of the Debentureholder(s) that may be adverse to the interests of an individual Debentureholder

The Debenture Trust Deed contains provisions for calling meetings of Debentureholder(s) to consider matters affecting their interests generally. These provisions shall permit defined majorities to bind all Debentureholder(s), including Debentureholder(s) who do not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and Debentureholder(s) who vote in a manner contrary to the majority.

4. Delay in the commissioning of the Project and evacuation infrastructure

The scheduled commissioning date of the Project in terms of the PPA is October 16, 2017. In terms of the PPA, if the Company is unable to commence supply of power by the scheduled commissioning date other than due to a delay in completion of the evacuation facilities and/or delay in allotment of land, the Company shall be required to pay liquidated damages to SECI as specified thereunder. Further, in terms of the PPA, in the event there is a delay in commissioning of the Project beyond 3 months from the scheduled commissioning date, there will be a reduction in the tariff payable under the PPA.

The Company has received a letter from APSPCL dated August 8, 2017 in terms which APSPCL has admitted that there would be a delay in the completion of the evacuation infrastructure and that the 220/33kV pooling substations and transmission lines for evacuating power from the Project are expected to be ready only by the end of February 2018.

In terms of the PPA, a delay in commissioning of the evacuation infrastructure and a delay by APSPCL in handing over the land to the Company entitles the Company to seek an extension of the scheduled commissioning date. The Company has applied to SECI for an extension of the scheduled commissioning date. SECI has not yet granted an extension of the scheduled commissioning date. In view of the foregoing, to provide additional comfort to the Debentureholder(s) the Sponsors have in terms of, and subject to, the project funds and share retention agreement dated September 28, 2017, agreed that in the event there is a delay in commissioning of the Project and there is a consequent reduction of the tariff payable under the PPA, the Sponsors shall infuse additional funds into the Company to fund deficit in the funds that may arise for or a deficit in funds available to, the Company on account of the lower tariff payable under the PPA.

5. Security over the Project land

In terms of Debenture Trust Deed, the Company is required to have created mortgage, inter alia, over the leasehold rights of the Company in respect of the Project land as part of the conditions precedent to subscription to the Debentures.

APSPCL and the Company have executed a Lease Agreement dated May 02, 2017 ("Lease Agreement") pursuant to which APSPCL has granted leasehold rights to the Company in relation to the underlying land for the Project. In furtherance to the Lease Agreement, APSPCL has handed over the vacant possession of the Project land to the Company, and the Company is currently in possession of the Project land (as evidenced by the handing over certificate and possession certificate, each dated May 5, 2017). However, the alienation process for the Project land is still underway and currently the title to the said land does not vest in APSPCL. Further, as required in terms of Section 17 of the Registration Act, 1908, the Lease Agreement is required to be registered, however, since the alienation process has not been completed yet, APSPCL has not registered the Lease Agreement. Due the foregoing reasons, the Company is unable to create a mortgage over its leasehold rights over the Project land until the completion of the process of alienation and creation of valid leasehold rights.

As a comfort to potential investors, the Company has obtained a letter from the Government of Andhra Pradesh dated July 13, 2017 that contains the assurance that the alienation process is currently underway and once completed, APSPCL will take the necessary actions to create valid leasehold rights in favour of the Company. The letter further contains the assurance that until the process of alienation and creation of valid leasehold rights is completed, the Company shall continue to possess the Project land and develop and operate the Project.

6. Delay, Delinquency and Credit risk

The Debentures represent a primary obligation of the Issuer. Further, on default by the Issuer to meet its obligations, the Debenture Trustee may in terms of the Debenture Trust Deed initiate legal proceedings for enforcement of the security interest against the Issuer. The enforcement action may take time before the charged assets are actually sold. The sale of charged assets may not fetch sufficient amount to pay the entire outstanding amounts in respect of the Debentures and the investors may lose their investments in the Debentures.

7. Delay in court proceedings in India

If any dispute arises between the Issuer and any other party, the Issuer or such other party may need to take recourse to judicial proceedings before courts in India. It is not unusual for court proceedings in India to continue for extended periods. Disposition of cases may be further subject to various delays including in relation to appellate adjudication.

8. Exercise of powers by the Debenture Trustee is subject to equitable principles and supervisory powers of courts.

The exercise by the Debenture Trustee of the powers and remedies conferred on it under the Debentures, and the Transaction Documents, or otherwise vested in it by law, will be subject to general equitable principles, the general supervisory powers and discretion of the Indian courts in the context thereof and the obtaining of any necessary governmental or regulatory consents, approvals, authorisations or orders.

The right of the Debentureholder(s) to receive payments under the Debentures will be junior to certain tax and other liabilities, including monies due and payable to secured creditors of the Issuer, preferred by law on an insolvency of the Issuer.

9. Delay in obtaining permits and approvals

Our business is subject to government regulations and certain registrations, approvals, permits and licenses for operating our business are required. Our failure in obtaining, renewing or complying, in a timely manner, with the terms of such registrations, approvals, permits and licenses may materially and adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

Furthermore, our governmental licenses, permits, registrations and approvals are subject to numerous conditions. We cannot assure you that licenses, permits, registrations and approvals would not be subject to suspension or revocation in the event of alleged non-compliance or failure to comply with any terms or conditions of such licenses, permits, registrations and approvals, or pursuant to any regulatory action, which may in turn result in significant remedial costs and penalties affecting our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations materially and adversely.

10. Equipment Failure

Our business depends upon the operating performance of our equipment, equipment damages or component failures of solar PV modules. Under-performance or non-performance of our equipment will directly have a negative effect on results of operations and project's financial condition.

Our suppliers may fail to fulfill their warranty obligations, including in relation to product quality and performance warranties, in connection with the equipment necessary to operate our projects. Even if a supplier complies with its obligations, the warranty may not be sufficient to cover all of our losses.

In the event of failure or unwillingness of the supplier to perform under its warranty obligations, whether as a result of financial condition or otherwise, or in the event of expiry of the term of the warranty or if the liability limit under a warranty have been reached, there may be a loss or reduction of warranty protection for such affected equipment, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

11. The amount of electricity the Project generates is dependent upon extent of solar potential every year.

The quantity of electricity and revenue generated at power project are highly dependent on solar conditions, which are difficult to predict and vary across seasons and regions. Operability of solar modules also depends on sun rays.

We cannot assure you that the solar conditions at any given site will always fall within the forecast ranges.

Our investment decisions for the Project are based on feasibility studies conducted onsite before starting construction. However, actual conditions of climate at site, particularly the solar conditions, may not conform to the findings of these feasibility studies. Hence, the Project may not meet estimated production levels, which could have an adverse impact on our business, financial condition, cash flows, projected profitability and results of operations.

12. Opposition from local communities and other parties

Opposition from the local communities where the Project is located and from special interest groups may affect construction and operation of the Project. In particular, there may be opposition from local communities in relation to the required land acquisitions. We cannot assure you that we will not encounter such opposition.

Such negative public or community response to the Project could adversely affect our ability to develop and operate Project. It can also lead to legal, public relations and other challenges which impede our ability to achieve commercial operations for the Project on schedule, meet our development and construction targets, address the changing needs of the Projects over time and to generate revenues.

13. Change in weather conditions

The Company acknowledges the risk associated with the change in weather conditions. Lack of sunshine could result in lower generation of electricity and could lead to losses.

14. Technology

The Company acknowledges the risk of PV components generating less electricity over time than expected and as the result of it could incur losses because of less generation.
